ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Marie Joo-Yeon Choi, is hereby committed on Count One of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 1 year and 1 day.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
7. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
8. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to the defendant to be a member of the Main Street Mafia Crips Gang and others known to the defendant to be participants in the Main Street Mafia Crips Gang's criminal activities, with the exception of the defendant's family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Main Street Mafia Crips Gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Main Street Mafia Crips Gang.
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the Main Street Mafia Crips Gang meet or assemble.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Defendant informed of right to appeal.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall surrender to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on June 30, 2025. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at: 350 W. First Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012

The current terms and conditions of the defendant's release shall remain in effect until the defendant begins serving the sentence imposed by the Court.
